Early Voting Boxes

From the collection of Joe Alt.

Joe was a Penn Township Trustee for over 50 years. When the voting boxes were put out of service, Joe rescued them.

The Western Cartridge Company was founded in 1898, so that helps date the wooden box.

The metal can has no visible markings, so no date can be determined.